SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1A
REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

The machine factory in ALAPAYEVSK (61°42'E/57°51'N), Sverdlovsk Oblast, is located about 1,000 feet southeast of the Meyva River, south of the town.

The plant covers an area of about 2,500x1,200 feet. The brick buildings have a coat of white plastering. A narrow-gauge spur track is available. Power is supplied by a municipal power plant. There are three departments:

Department 1: Machining of the unfinished products from the foundry;
Departments 2 and 3: Manufacture of small parts (see Annex).

700 Soviets and 80 PW's for the three shifts.*

Father,

Comment :

- a. This is the first report since the war on the ALAPAYEVSK machine tool factory.
- b. The existence of the plant was known during the war when it employed about 1,100 workers.
- c. The attached sketch cannot be verified since it is the first of its kind and reliable map material is not available.
